Patsy,

you are a very sweet girl. I wish I had known you longer. I really had a good time in sociology with you. You are very sophisticated!
Best wishes!

Ken Hester

Patsy, I wish that I had known you much longer than I did but I am glad that I met you. I have enjoyed being in the same Sociology Class with you. You are a very nice young lady and I admire
you very much. I wish you lots of luck in the future.

year. I think Mrs

teacher. Hope you have good luck in the future.
Keep on picking!

Patsy,

It's been so fun having 7th Ed. Sociology with you. Remember those really dumb jokes
& stories told in sociology?

And do you remember
some of these discussions
we had? Boy, do I remember! Hope to see you next year,

Debbie
Ramage

Patsy,
I have been a pretty good year with you in Amer. History.
Even though Michael & Cary told you about what I did on the weekends. You are a good friend of mine and hope you always will be.

Your mixed up friend,

REFLECTIONS . . . What do you think of when you first hear that word? The reflection of your face in a mirror or a window? Thoughts going through your head? Or did you think back about the earlier years of your life when you were young and carefree? You and I may define reflections very differently, and yet we both know that reflecting is an important part of our lives. By reflecting this school year 1975-76 at County High, we hope to get a real "behind the scenes" view of our experiences together. To avoid any conflict with definitions, we turn to Mr. Webster who says, "reflections are . . .

Being on the Tuscohi Staff means cropping pictures and rushing to meet deadlines. It means drawing layouts, and checking and rechecking page envelopes before they are sent to the plant. Trying to think of picture ideas occupies a lot of the staff's time. Interesting copy that students will read presents a major problem for the members. Two other problems that face the staff are trying to convince reluctant merchants to advertise in the book, and working hard to see that all parts of the school population are represented fairly.

IN MEMORY OF DONNA JO
MADDOX

Loving those who she knew well
Kind to those she did not Caring about anyone in need

Sensitive to life
and living
But her life was short

Donna, we loved you.
We miss you.
Your sweet laughing eyes and your warm personality

God took you from us,
To become one of His Angels.

IN MEMORY OF EDWARD

His music
Friendship and smile
Were with us
For awhile
He lived
A short life
I knew him
Some knew him better
He left life
On a dark road
Go to heaven
Edward in peace.

The TUSCALOOSA COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION is striving to make education in Tuscaloosa County the best possible. Represented by men and women who are dedicated to the proposition that young people are the most important aspect of the schools, they are continually working to see that Tuscaloosa County youth receive the best education available.

The members come from a variety of backgrounds, jobs, and communities, but they work as one to realize their common goal of quality education for all of the youth.

This year's Board is represented by Mrs. Madge Beasley, Mrs. Gertrude Brewer, Mr. Paul Singleton, Mrs. Mary Helen Andress, and Mr. Claude Burns, Jr.

Dr. Charles Sprayberry is the person who so ably carries out the board's policies in his role as Superintendent of Tuscaloosa County Schools. By reason of his excellent leadership and his desire for quality education, he and the Board have one common aim — the betterment of Tuscaloosa County youth through education in the county schools.

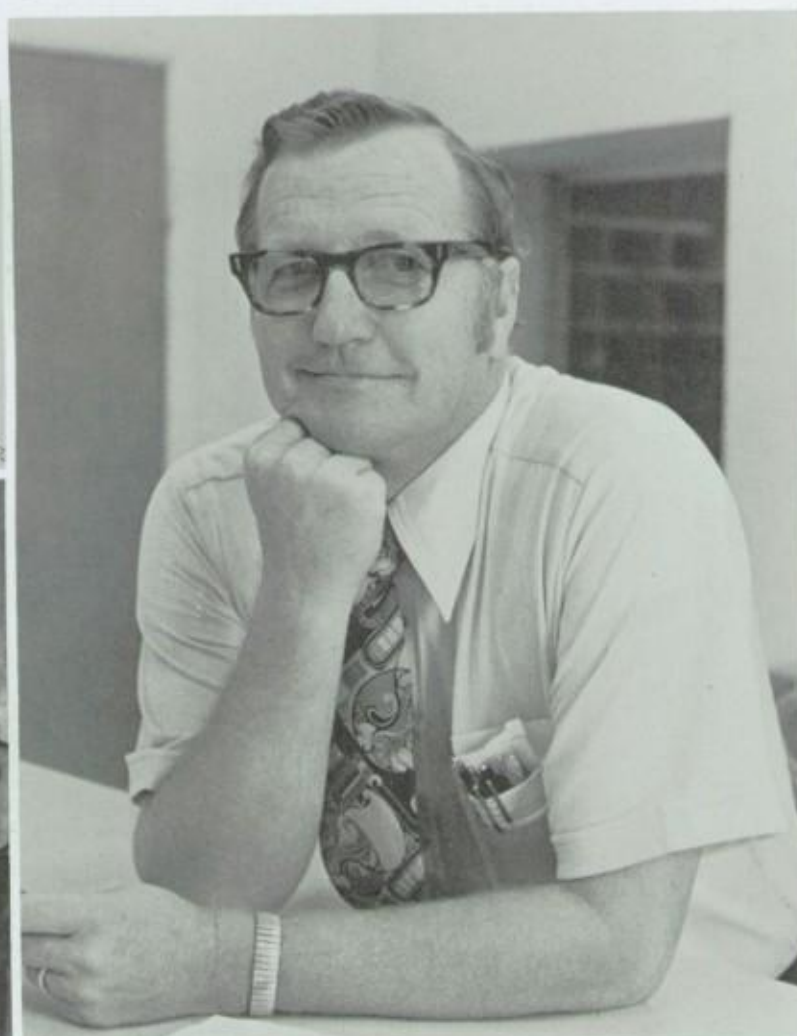

The job of being principal of a high school is not an easy one, but MR. GEORGE HATAWAY serves very ably as head of this school. He feels the most frustrating part of his job has been students achieving less than their capabilities. But the job has its bright moments, too when he observes our students maturing and doing well in life.

Before becoming a principal seventeen years ago, MR. HATAWAY was a classroom teacher, assistant principal, and assistant coach. He attributes his success in the educational field to the fact that he has always been fair, firm, and friendly in his dealings with adults and students. Never satisfied with the status quo, MR. HATAWAY would like to see more air conditioning in the school; expanded curriculum offerings; a completed track field; tennis courts built; a swimming pool added; and above all, smaller classes to make learning easier for students.

MR. BOBBY WALKER has the unenviable position of Assistant Principal of Tuscaloosa County High School. This capacity he fills very well in spite of all the frustrations that are attributed to his job. Prior to becoming an assistant principal, he was a classroom teacher at Northport Junior High School.

Very much school-minded, Mr. Walker feels that school spirit has been extremely good this year. Race relations have been improving, he believes.

On the other hand, MR. WALKER is concerned with the tardiness of some students in the school and the deteriorating moral values of some of the students here at Tuscaloosa County High School. In spite of this, however, a bright spot for him is seeing a large majority of our students maturing and "going places."

Mrs. Marianne Bryan

Mrs. Hazel Branyon

Mrs. Patsy Moss

Mr. Donald Springer

A group of "behind the scenes" people, the office staff, is one group we could not do without. MRS. BRANYON, the Bookkeeper, has a job which could fill 24 hours a day. From filing, typing, counting money, to holding all the bits and pieces together that flow into the office — MRS. BRANYON does a great job.

A new addition to the office staff, the Registrar MRS. MOSS, does just a little bit of everything. Keeping records straight, checking students in and out and in and out all day, answering any and all questions visitors might have, and just being there to handle any work that comes up are just a few of her jobs. It is hard to see how we ever did without her.

Guiding and counseling vocational students, MR. SPRINGER keeps the ball rolling for each T.C.H.S. student in deciding his or her vocation. Helping students to find their way and working it into a workable schedule takes much time and patience. He works with prospective 10th graders to help them figure out how and where they want to go with their education. But most of all, MR. SPRINGER cares about people. He shows it by his involvement and concern for the students here at T.C.H.S.

Keeping her ears open to students is one of MRS. BRYAN'S main occupations. From "How can I graduate this year?" to "Where will I go to college?", she helps desperate students find their way. Although she is rarely seen, she is ready and willing to help any student with a problem or decision.

MRS. CAROLYN COLE — Typing I

Mr. Beaulieu is our newest math teacher, coming here from Vermont. He likes progressive jazz and classical music. His hobbies are swimming, running, weight lifting, basketball, and football. And how does he feel about County High? — "So far? Great!"

A very gracious lady to whom the Tuscohi Staff would like to pay tribute this year is Mrs. Sarah Faucett. We salute you, Mrs. Faucett, for your dedication and unselfish service to Tuscaloosa County High School.

Mrs. Faucett was born and reared in Northport along with her two brothers and two sisters. She went to high school here at T.C.H.S. and on to the University of Alabama to get her A.B. and M.A. degrees. She has been teaching English 11 and English 12 for 33 years. Her reason for becoming a teacher was: "I enjoy young people and I like to try to help them to achieve their potential." Mrs. Faucett started her teaching career at Brookwood High School, then to Palmetto High School, on to Tuscaloosa County High School.

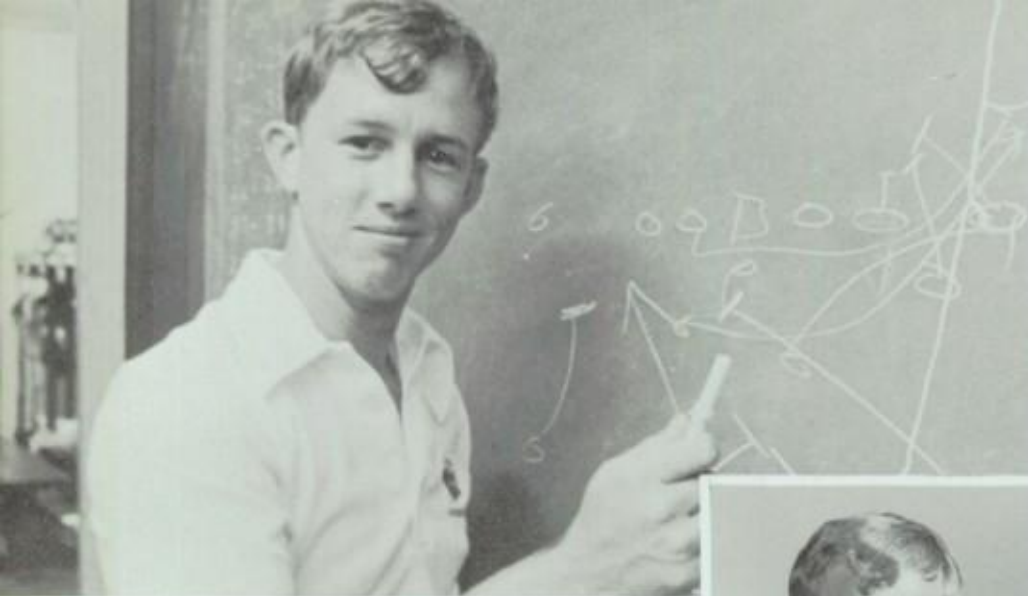

Mrs. Faucett has three children. She also has four grandchildren. Her husband Omar and she have been married 30-odd years ("It seems like yesterday").

Each day of teaching has been memorable for her — especially seeing former students perform as excellent teachers. As far as retirement is concerned, she has not given it much thought, but when she does retire, she plans on remaining busy since she has so many interests.

The one event which has made her life take the path it has taken is her acceptance of Christ and the discipline practiced in her home.

Coach Adrian McKinzey, born in Calhoun County along with three brothers, went to Calhoun County High School, Howard College, the University of Alabama, and Montevallo University. He has an A.B. degree, and he has been teaching history, math, physical education, drivers' education, plus coaching football and basketball for 38 years. He became head coach of football and basketball here in 1939.

Coach McKinzey and his wife LeMoyne have three children and grandchildren. The McKinzey's have been married over 37 years.

1960 was an important year for this man. That year his basketball team won the state basketball championship. This is the only team in the school's history to do so.

"Coach Mac," as he is fondly known, has been singled out by the Tuschoi Staff this year because of his many years of faithful service to the school. We, the students, want to say in this small way, thank you, Coach Mac, for a job well done.

What's for lunch today? Hot dogs? I wanted hamburgers! There's no salt on the table? Where's the ketchup?

These are just a few complaints received by lunchroom staffs across the nation (including ours). Figuring out how to prepare nutritious balanced meals with a set budget for 1400 students each day is quite a job. Mrs. Sara Bell Newton, along with the lunchroom staff is doing a good job of providing a variety of good lunches. Thank you Mrs. Newton and staff for all your work and dedication.

Who are the silent workers who arrive at 6 a.m., and stay until 6 p.m. working continuously?

Our guardian angels with a broom and a smile who sweep and mop and wax and shine are 3 people we could not do without. Carefully following all our activities, Mr. J.D. Humphrey, Mr. Curtis Wells, and Mrs. Fanny Jones have the big responsibility of cleaning after plays, games, pageants, and meetings. Keep up the good work, custodians.

The County High Football Team this year was represented by 16 Seniors, 17 Juniors, and 15 Sophomores, and 5 Coaches who each in his own way has made 1975-76 a memorable year for the County High Wildcats. Each Senior on the team has been pictured individually in the Tuscohi. Other members of the team are Juniors Robert Edwards, Jack Bates, Robert Beams, Danny Sutton, Gary Cook, Mike Little, Tony Gregg, Kevin McMahon, Don Patton, Waymon Oliver, Don Wood, McKinley Taggart, Craig Andoe, Bruce Harper, Johnny Massey, Darrell Parker, Mike Moss, and Sophomores Brian Jones, Jeff Lesley, Malcolm Lavender, Richard Collins, Joe Shaw, Joseph Edwards, Blake Galloway, Tommy Mason, Richard Snider, Randall Shelton, Eddie Hocutt, Mike Gardiner, David Nevins, Theroux Blackburn, Robert McMillan.

A person who has gained the love and respect of every student at County High plus many others throughout Alabama; an individual who had the strength to pull through an injury that almost put him on his death bed; the guy who helped to truly unify our football team and school as a whole who caused many of us to pause silently in amazement and then give him a 5 minute standing ovation in a pep rally — this is DENNIS BAILEY.

The Oct. 10 issue of the Blue-White said it so well — "To look at him you would never believe a man that small would ever play, much less start, for any high school football team. But within Dennis was a love of football that made him bigger in many ways than a pro lineman. Despite the score, this man would never be defeated."

TCHS Schedule is Tough

10? 9? 8? 7? 6? 5? 4? 3? 2?
1?-0!!! This is the concensus of many people about our football season, but as far as we're concerned, T.C.H.S. Cats are WINNERS! Although the Cats did not win any games score-wise, they captured the feeling and the spirit needed for a team to be winners in the eyes of their supporters. Some say we were defeated, but there is no force on earth that can defeat the spirit of the team and the school.

Plagued by injuries, the Cats pulled through, giving their best and trying their hardest. Those 32 injured stood by their teammates and exhibited so much spirit that the players on the field felt as if they were actually there with them.

The Cats reflected many times on near touchdowns, but the reflection faded as the ball seemed to spring from their hands into those of the opponents. The memories of this year's games will remain forever imprinted in the minds of the players and the coaches — not the memories of the games that were not won, but of the victories won in their hearts through teammanship and the guidance of Coach Taylor.

BASKETBALL

Varsity Team: James Crummie, Lorenzo Freeman, Ronnie Maneice, Cedric Spencer, Gerald Lavender, Greg Kilgore, Tommy Clemmons, Curtis Calvery, Jerry Bates, Kurt Hansen, Coach McKinzey

B Team: Cedric Kirkman, Leon Hutton, Edric Kirkman, Tom Reeves, David Windle, David Nixon, Buford Davis, James Ottey, Robert Gordon, Johnny Sealey, Charles Gray, Melvin Steele, Coach Wright

Coach McKinzey Enters 40th Year

T.C.H.S. boasted of the best basketball team it had acquired in a decade. The varsity consisted of five seniors and five juniors. The "super star" player for the team was Gerald Lavender, who was dubbed "West Alabama's Best."

Picked to be the top team in this region, we faced the toughest schedule in the region. All the teams played were 4A except for three.

Height and experience were the Cats strongest points, while their weaknesses were their quickness and impatience with officials resulting in fouls.

The Cats started the season by playing Robert E. Lee early. Lee finished #2 in the state last year. Alas, the Cats tasted defeat for the first time when the 2 teams met this year. They compensated for this by beating Austin, ranked #2 in the state this year, and Decatur, ranked #7 this year, in the Decatur Invitational Tournament. On Friday night, January 9, the Cats took a thriller from Tuscaloosa on home court — something that we haven't done since 1972.

Coach Adrian McKin-

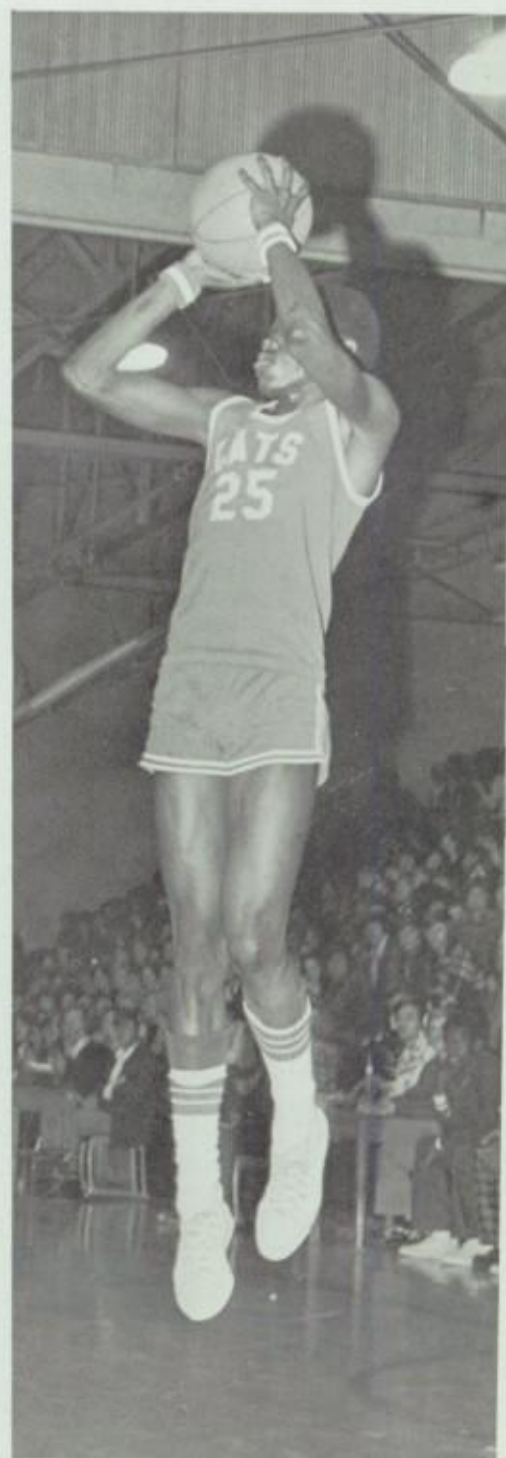

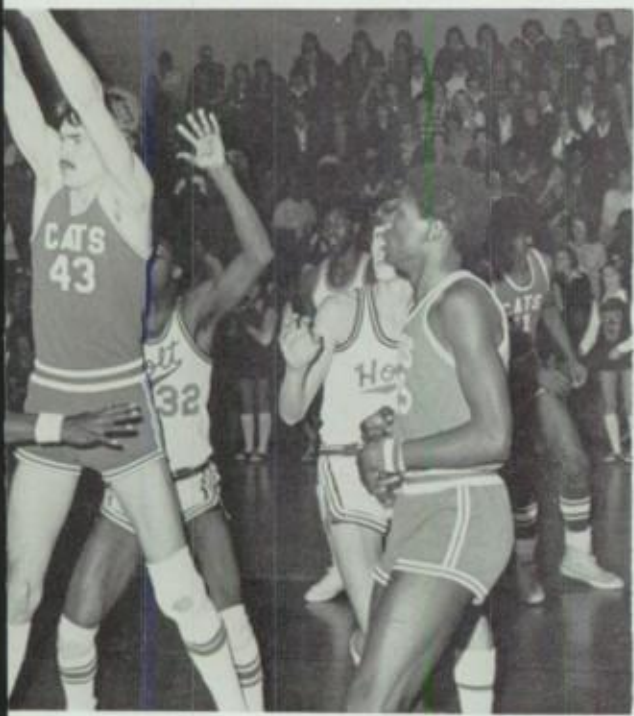

zey is the only coach this team had had in high school. The team called him "Bwana Mac," because of the famous words he utters to them: "You-go." They truly were Bwana's boys, too, allowing only 49.3 points per game early in the season, pointing to an excellent defense as well as offense.

Coach McKinzey was in his fortieth year as basketball coach at T.C.H.S. He had been recently recognized in SPORTSWEEK MAGAZINE as having coached longer than any other coach in the South, as well as having had no technical fouls called on him in the forty years he had been coach.

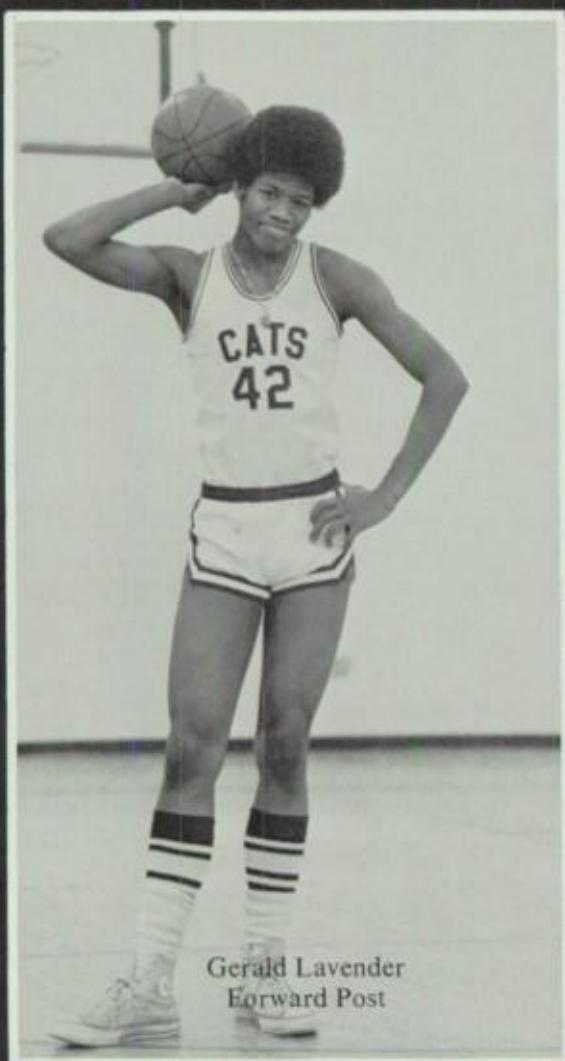

All-in-all, the coach and the team were a winning pair!!!

"Reflections" has been the key word exemplified throughout the earlier part of this book. But what do reflections really mean to the students of T.C.H.S.? WHAT DO YOU THINK OF WHEN YOU HEAR THE WORD REFLECTIONS?

"image in a mirror . . . sun hitting the water and making it glimmer . . . reflecting into my future . . . looking back on things . . . images or shadows in my mind . . . visions of yourself . . . I see myself . . . good times or bad times . . . Lemon Fresh Joy . . . things that will soon be past . . . having something to look forward to . . . moonlight shining on still water . . . how I appear to other people . . . "I HAVE SPENT MOST OF MY TIME THIS YEAR REFLECTING ON . . . " grades . . . females . . . my past . . . the crazy time I had last year . . . band . . . having a good time . . . summer of '75 . . . my future . . . my friends . . . how to get out of class . . . making myself a better person . . . winning a football game . . . last year . . . what went wrong? . . . junior high . . . boys . . . looking at the table I waxed with pledge . . . graduation this year . . . my past . . . old friends . . . problems . . . getting into college . . . pleasant memories . . . the annual staff (perish the thought) I'll probably miss it . . . sports . . . "

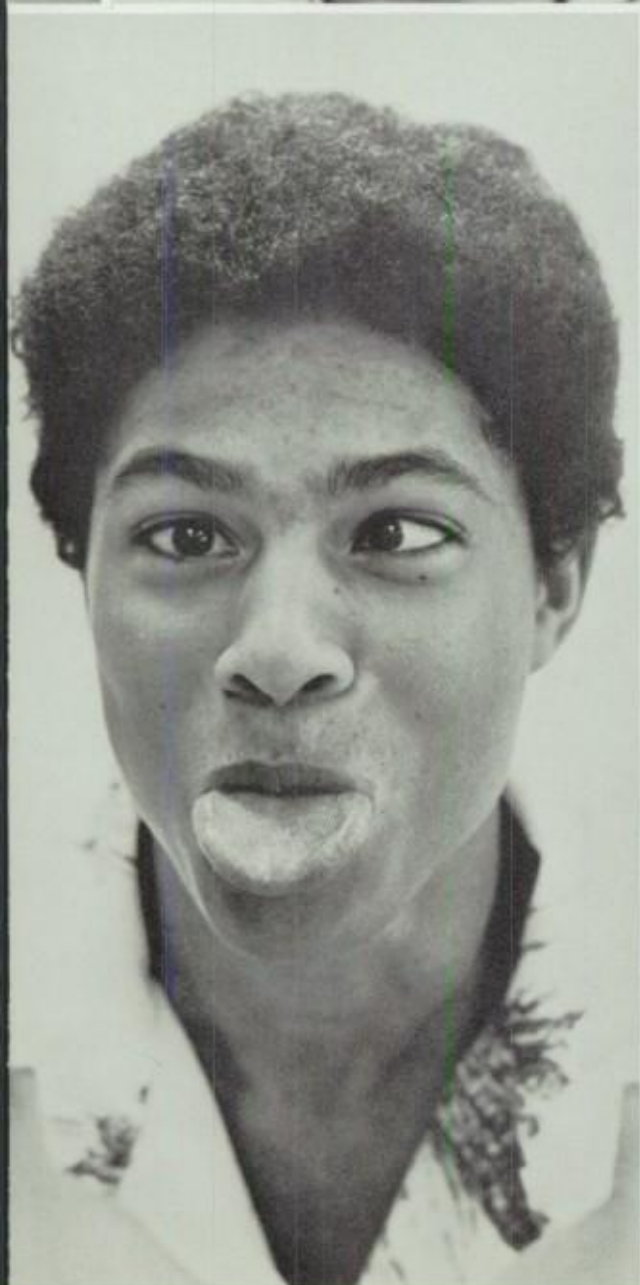

Katy:
You're a very sweet girl. I wish the best of happiness
for you. Take care
and may God Bless you always!

I HAVE SPENT MOST OF MY TIME THIS YEAR REFLECTING ON . . . "football . . . volleyball, the great times I had last year . . . trying to pass . . . winning a game . . . perfecting my cheating habits . . . what my own thing is, so when I graduate I can do it . . . trying to be a good girl . . . a career . . . the valuable knowledge I've learned in school . . . plans . . . wishing I was a junior so I wouldn't have to graduate . . . hobbies . . . next year, next period, last week, anytime but the present . . . acting a little more crazy every day . . . 12 years of school . . . Spanish II . . . getting a date . . . being the Chrisitan I should be at school and all around . . . how great my summer was . . ."

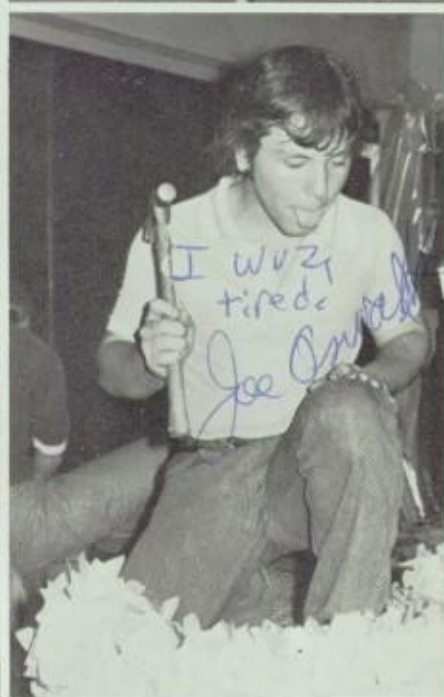

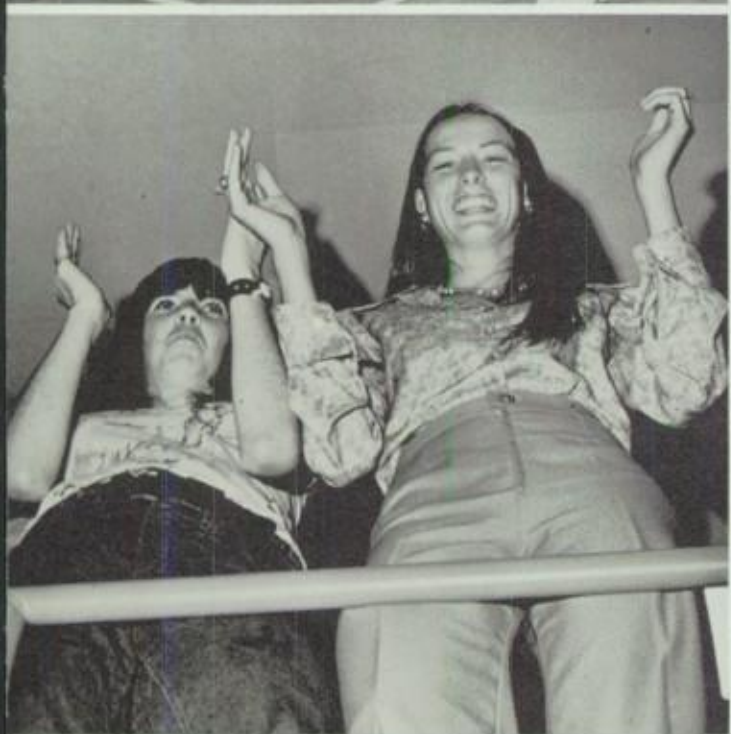

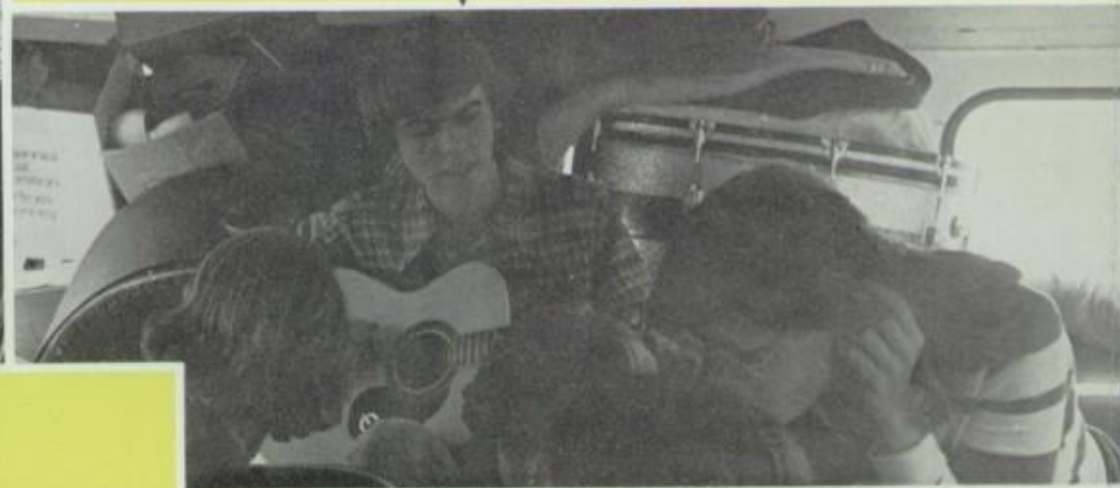

WHEN I SEE MY REFLECTION
 IN THE MIRROR I "stick out my tongue or smile (depending on my mood) grin and bear it burst into tears faint laugh
 I wonder, who is that? that can't be me close my eyes frown or smile scream I want to cry wish it would change I think of what I need to improve I get sick turn my head see myself applaud say good grief look again walk away break it remember how great looking I once was choke go wild try buying a new mirror feel sorry for myself say, Why me Lord?
 wonder how I made it this far see someone I don't really know pray wish I could change do the Jungle Boogie hide question myself wonder what I'm doing Friday night almost keel over wonder if it's worth all the trouble "

DO YOU HANG AROUND A CERTAIN GROUP OR ARE YOU A LONER AND WHY? "generally I'm a loner, but I have enjoyed the friendships of many people this year . . . a certain group because I like them . . . I like everybody . . . loner, why not? . . . I don't hang around a certain group because I want everyone to be some kind of friend . . . I hang around people I feel comfortable with . . . I hang around anyone that will have me . . . no, I'm a loner . . . cliques show signs of insecurity . . . I guess you can say I'm a loner; I like to spend my extra time reading . . ."

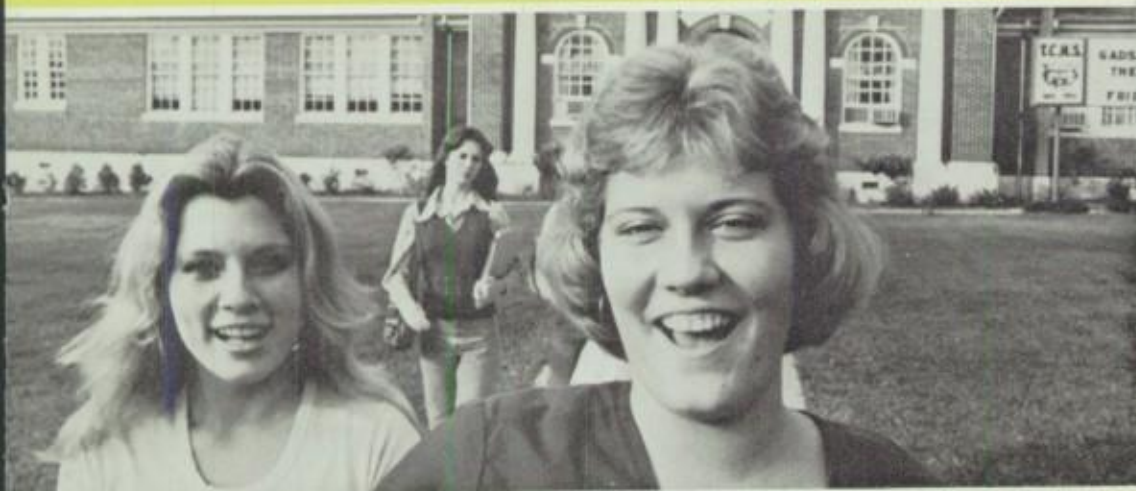

WHY DO YOU THINK CERTAIN GROUPS OF PEOPLE DRESS ALIKE? "they don't, do they? . . . they have something in common . . . to be with it . . . they're jealous of the others . . . it's competition for catching the boys . . . they feel a need to identify with someone . . . because they have a common interest . . . because they are associated with each other a great deal of the time and habits and fads tend to spread . . . they're stupid, I guess . . . they want to look funny . . ." WHY DO YOU THINK SO MANY PEOPLE WEAR JEANS? "because everybody else does . . . they can't afford double knits . . . they are the most comfortable to wear . . . they last a long time . . . they're comfortable and you can wipe your hands on them . . . if they're dirty, you can sit on the ground . . . you can move much faster in them . . ."

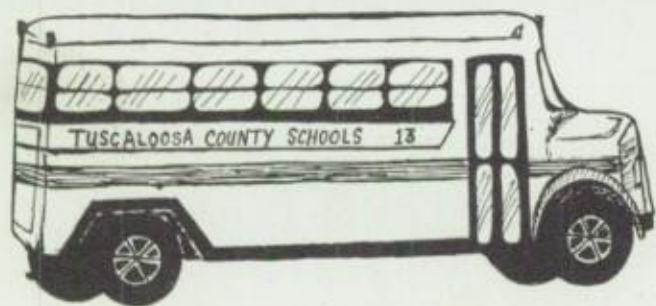

WHAT IS ONE WORD TO DESCRIBE YOUR SCHOOL BUS? ... "impossible ... indescribable ... stuck up ... a truck load of romper room rejects ... funny farm #14 ... hustle ... blah ... antidisestablishmentarianistic ... loud ... rough ... I don't ride one, thank goodness ... well ... dirty ... mad-house ... trasy ... yellow ... messy ... ?!@!?!!!! ... what's a school bus ... soulful ... crowded ... unlucky (13) ... ugh! ... weird ... C-R-A-Z-Y ... legs, I usually walk ... talkative ... out of this world ... rusty ..."

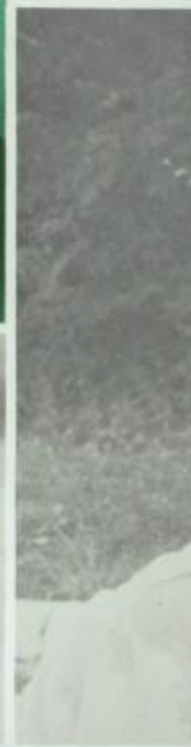

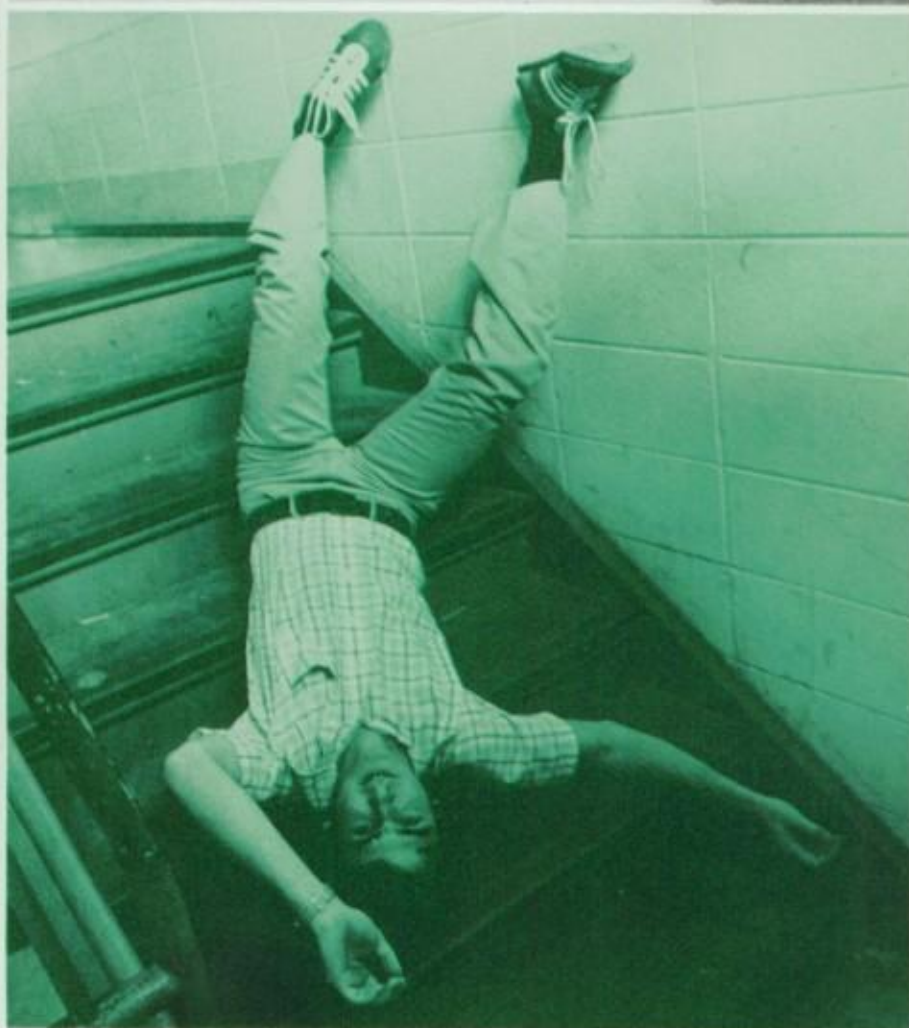

WHAT IS ONE WORD TO DESCRIBE YOUR SCHOOL BUS? ... disaster ... bad, bad, bad ... very comfortable since they transferred some of the other students to the other bus ... zoom ... pathetic ... crummie ... no comment ... slow ... trouble ... hectic ... dynamite ... gossip ... too many little kids ... late ... gross ... a sardine can ... boring ... fast ... uninhabitable ... deleted ... chaos ... rowdy ... great ... dreadful ... immature ... heavy, man, heavy ... safe ... bumpy ... hard ... my mother told me not to say things like that ..."

Party. Been fun getting to know you this year. You've got great going for you whether you realize it or not. It's been fun in sociology. Y'all. Maybe we'll get some ideas together next year. You a great person to have. Stay sweet & may I see you. Love you always, love me. Shanon

THIS YEAR, MY MOST FRUSTRATING EXPERIENCE HAS BEEN . . . "trying to work in Algebra II class . . . everything . . . tests . . . getting my cigarette lit . . . typing . . . coming to school . . . being accepted . . . opening my stupid locker and not being late for class . . . flunking an English test in Mrs. Faucett's English class . . . football . . . writing a research paper . . . band practice . . . going to the wrong class . . . thinking up answers for a questionnaire . . . trying to keep pencils . . . girls . . . announcing at homecoming . . . not having a date for homecoming . . . cutting the lunch line every day and not getting caught . . ."

THE MOST EMBARRASSING THING THAT HAPPENED AT SCHOOL WAS . . . "when the teacher called me a flirt . . . when all my papers fell out of my notebook . . . when I went into the wrong room . . . having my sister in the 10th grade . . . being a sophomore . . . when I fell down . . . running into the pole in the lunchroom . . . the day I got my first lick . . . falling down the steps . . . being a cheerleader at a pep rally . . . when I got caught kissing in the hall . . . having my shirt come unbuttoned . . . when I got my fingers caught in the keys of the typewriter . . . when I went into the boys' bathroom by mistake . . . getting slapped for flirting . . . fell down in the hall and a boy stepped on me . . ."

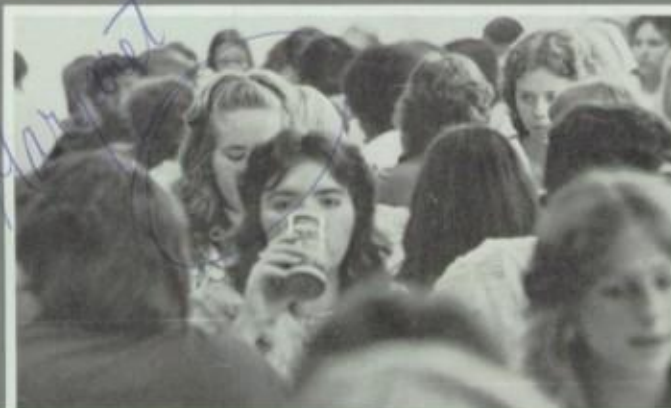

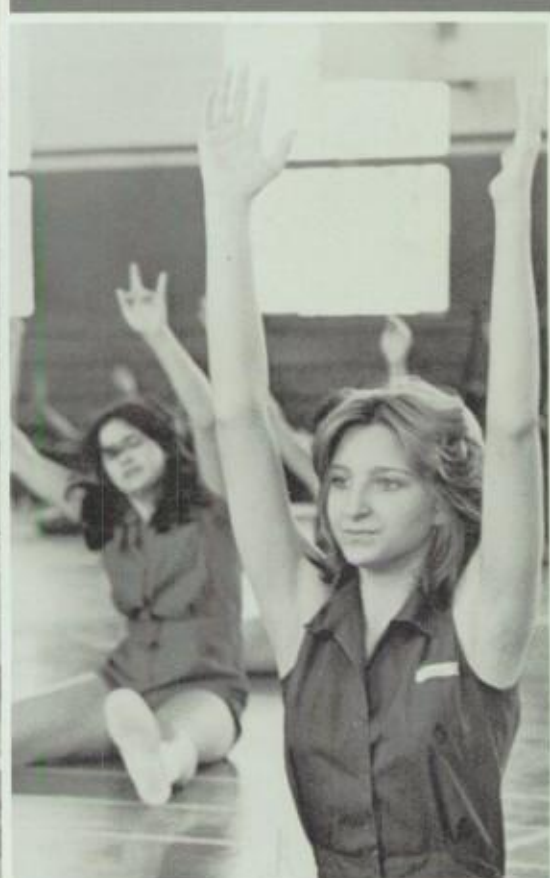

HOW DID A PARTICULAR
TEACHER INFLUENCE YOUR FUTURE? "they didn't . . . they gave me confidence . . . she helped me to love a subject that I might not have felt otherwise . . . influenced my belief in politics . . . she passed me . . .
she told me not to get my tonsils out in the future because they are germ fighters . . . by telling me I can do it if I put my mind to it . . . he made me realize that everyone in life has a purpose, and we should all work toward the goal of treating each other as equals . . ."

HOW DID A PARTICULAR
TEACHER INFLUENCE YOUR FUTURE? "he told me to shut up or else I might not have a future . . .
assured me that I'd never go into English . . . she made me sit up at the front of the class . . . encouraged me to finish school and go to college . . . she taught me to decide how I stand on certain views and know why . . . he helped me to grow up . . ."

IF YOU COULD LEAVE ONE STORY ABOUT YOUR DAYS AT T.C.H.S. THAT WOULD BE TOLD OVER AND OVER AGAIN, WHAT WOULD IT BE? "fun in P.E. . . . I was in love . . . how sweet I have been . . . a winning season at T.C.H.S. . . . the story of our lunch table, 4B . . . sociology . . . good times . . . the pride of being a student at T.C.H.S. . . . when I couldn't find my locker . . . the story of the marching competition . . . how good teachers have been to me . . . the day I fell down the stairs . . . the day I dissected my first frog . . . experiences in classes . . . how crazy I was . . . learning how fun it can be to go to school and learning about the facts of life . . . the day I was given the nickname "cabbage" . . . the first day of school, and how I was scared to death . . . when the seniors used dynamite primer to help hold up an object on the senior float . . . driving in drivers' ed. with someone who has never driven before . . . the time I made all B's on my report card . . . the many things we talked about, discussed, and reasoned in English . . . the thousands of band practices . . ."

Finish each day and be done with it. You have done with it what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely, and with too high a spirit to be cumbered with your old nonsense.

about one of the craziest people I know.
Good luck in whatever you do!

It has really been a pleasure knowing you for another "fabulous" year.

The only time I ever saw you was during 6th period but that was enough to have a few good times.

You're a fantastic person and don't ever let the bad times weigh you down, it would ruin you.
Be good. Love ya. Jenn
